The Shelter Valley Folk Festival committee is dedicated to creating opportunities for the public to experience Sustainable Living as an educational and interactive process. We have created a small but vibrant area within the Folk Festival to showcase a variety of options through resources, workshops and demonstrations.

Please indicate your interest in participating in the following aspects of the Sustainable Living Village.

1. I am interested in offering an interactive workshop on the following topic:

2. I am interested in participating in a panel discussion or presentation on the following topic

3. I am interested in providing resource materials to the Festival's Sustainable Living Resource tent, i.e. pamphlets, business cards, informative posters. Please specify;

4. I am available to participate in the Sustainable Living Village for (indicate one or both with an X)

-one day

-the weekend

On a separate page, briefly (30-40 words) describe yourself and your work, and any materials or techniques of note or interest. This description will be used in preparation of the Festival program and promotional material.

(descriptions over 40 words will be edited to fit the program format.)

You may provide photographs of your work, a website link or other promotional material that features your work. If, after submitting your application, you choose to make changes to your planned presentation, please contact the Village Coordinator.

Our focus will continue to be on education and awareness for our audience, while providing a variety of ways for you to showcase your practice or business. The intention of the festival is not to create a retail booth atmosphere, therefore no items will be offered for sale in the Wellness and Sustainable Living Villages.

Like many festivals, the Shelter Valley Folk Festival (a registered Federal Charity) will be holding a fundraising raffle. We will be asking accepted contributors to consider making a donation to the raffle.

Please return your completed Application Form to Barbara Buntin, Village Coordinator,
